About the Meta Platforms, Inc

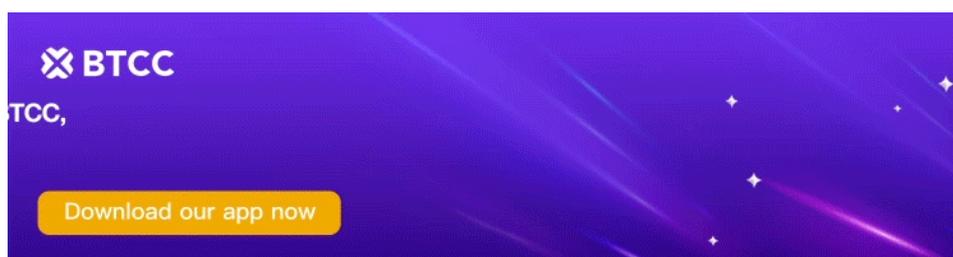

We've already established that Facebook, Inc. is now known as Meta Platforms, Inc. We've also mentioned how the company's name change was made so it could better compete in the emerging Metaverse. This futuristic internet is widely regarded as the next big thing. You should also know that the rebranded firm is the parent of well-known brands including Facebook, Instagram, Messenger, WhatsApp, Oculus, Mapillary, Workplace, Portal, Diem, and a few others.

The American tech giant Meta Platforms, Inc. Along with Apple, Amazon, Alphabet, and Microsoft, it is one of the world's five largest IT firms. Its flagship domain, Facebook.com, is often considered to be the third most popular website in the entire globe. Only Google and YouTube are thought to be larger, and only just barely.

Mark Zuckerberg and some of his roommates in college launched Facebook in 2004. Zuckerberg is set to take over as Facebook's CEO and become the company's largest shareholder. He is largely responsible for the company's meteoric rise from a single social networking site to one of the largest technology conglomerates in the world. Multiple strategic acquisitions and the introduction of new and noteworthy products and services have boosted the company's success.

Meta Stock Recent Price

Our forecast for the price of Meta stock from 2023 to 2030 will make more sense if you first familiarize yourself with the firm's historical pricing and the factors that have influenced it in the past. Facebook, like many other businesses, was impacted by the COVID-19 virus. The pandemic caused the company's stock to plummet to an all-time low of $146.01 on March 16, 2020. The company's fortunes turned around in a matter of months, and on August 26 of that year, its stock hit a new all-time high of $303.91.

Stock prices of Meta can also be affected by the company's image. Privacy concerns have been at the center of most of the criticism leveled at Facebook over the years. The corporation faces several challenges, including multiple lawsuits, even after changing its name to Meta. The success of its many businesses and the resolution of any litigation will have an impact on the stock price.

Meta Stock Price Forecast 2023

There's a little probability that Meta stock's recent downtrend will be sustained. We believe the stock will bounce back within a week or two, but understand that it could be longer. However, a full recovery of FB stock is expected to occur within the following year. Wallet Investors projects that in a year's time, shares of Meta (FB) will cost $278.766. It's a plausible prediction, albeit it won't come close to the record highs.

It's important to remember that there are prediction websites that offer more optimistic projections for the stock price. For instance, GovCapital projects that Meta share price will peak at $576.10 on 02.03.2023. We are unable to disprove their claims, but we can say unequivocally that their evidence is overly optimistic. When trying to predict the direction of stock prices, it's usually best to proceed with caution.

Meta Stock Price Forecast 2025

It's safe to assume that 2025 will be a better year for Facebook and Meta Platforms, Inc.'s other brands if 2024 goes according to plan. The January opening price of $387.117 for Meta is projected. We predict that the highest price a share of stock will ever reach is $422.879 in the month of June. For the month of December, analysts anticipate that Facebook's share price will range between $436.810 and $439.656. The highest point this month should cost around $440.78.

Meta Stock Price Forecast 2030

Our annual forecast for the Meta stock price ends in 2030. Due to its inherent adaptability, Meta is predicted to have significantly expanded by the year 2030. Platforms like Facebook and other firms within the Meta conglomerate would have reaped huge profits from the Metaverse by then. At that time, Meta shares need to be selling for no less than $743 at midyear and $760 by year's end.

Before ending this section, it's important to note that Meta may fare much better than most people expect before 2030. If this holds true, and the company is successful in fixing its privacy and other problems, the stock price could increase by a much larger amount than is predicted here.

FAQs

Meta stock has recently plummeted significantly. So far in 2022, the stock has dropped by 65%. That's a significant drop, but it doesn't mean the stock isn't profitable. Yes, investors have lost money recently, but the stock should return to profitability soon. It has previously been profitable, and there is no reason to suppose that it will not be profitable again.

2.Is Meta stock a viable investment for the future?

Given what Facebook Inc. has accomplished in less than 20 years and the brilliance of the founder/CEO, the company's stock is a smart long-term investment. Zuckerberg and his team are expected to lead the company to greater success, which means that the stock will continue to rise in value.

3.Why is the Meta stock price declining?

As we've mentioned several times in this Meta stock price prediction, Meta has been plagued by issues for many years, and a company's reputation affects the price of its shares. However, this is not the primary reason for Meta stock's decline. The current decline is attributable to the company's release of its 2020 fourth quarter earnings report. Investors are only reacting to a fall in the company's earnings, implying that greater performance in 2023 has the potential to turn things around.
