The method of Firepin token has been very organized before its launch, and so has its support for virtual world.

Shiba Inu (Shib) can be said to have become the most famous cryptocurrency in the world last year. According to coinmarketcap, launched in August 2020, Shib experienced a simple and huge 2021, soaring 46 million% in that year, because it quickly rose to the top 15 cryptocurrencies by market value.

Although Shib did not have any form of intrinsic value at that time, the hype surrounding the project continued to increase, and fomo played a role in its rise.

Firepin token (FRPN) is different from Shiba because they have goals and objectives they want to try and achieve in the field of DeFi. Shiba was launched as a memo currency of Dogecoin (Doge).

Is the Firepin Token (FRPN) Ready For the Next Step?

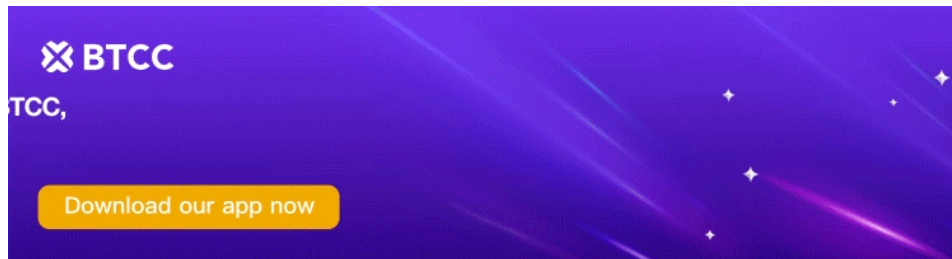

With the launch of Firepin token (FRPN) on May 27, its pre-sale has only more than three weeks left, and the project will enter the third stage in just six days. The pre-sale of Firepin was very successful. It started at $0.000067 and now costs $0.002493 at the time of writing this article.

Before the launch of FRPN, their method was very organized, and their support for the virtual world and blockchain in the digital asset industry won them a group of loyal fans. FRPN tokens will be available on binance smart chain (BSC), polygon (matic) and Ethereum (ETH) networks, and the Multi Chain deployment between Ethereum and Avalanche (avax) will be launched in the second quarter of 2022.

As Firepin aims to solve the interoperability problem in the cryptocurrency industry, users can access different blockchains and choose the blockchain that is most suitable for them, which represents the theme of decentralization of cryptocurrency.

Prior to the launch, the goal of Firepin is to launch FRPN on pancakeswap (cake), one of the world's leading decentralized exchanges, and strive for listing in coingecko and coinmarketcap.

The Firepin token is likely to reach a high level in the journey of digital assets, which will begin on May 27.
