BTCC vs. Binance

	BTCC	Binance
Supported Cryptocurrencies	360+	350+, but only about 150 are available in the U.S.
Safety	Industry-leading security, with no reported hacks or security breaches to date	Although security in Binance is impressive, it once suffered a major hack in 2019 and it once had regulatory trouble in several countries
Fees	Compared with other major crypto exchanges, the fees charged by BTCC is relative low, such as only charging 0.06% for both takers and makers	Fees are quite low, especially compared with main rivals
User Friendliness	Easy-to-navigate interface, easy for both newcomers and experienced traders	The trading platforms may be not user-friendly despite a broad range of features and trading options, even experienced traders may feel overwhelmed by all the options available
Service Scope	Offer service to more than 6 million registered users in more than 100 countries and regions	Offer hundreds of cryptocurrencies for trade globally, but its platform for U.S. users is more limited as it is only available in 46 states
Customer Service	Offer excellent customer service via email and live chat	Provide 7/24 customer support in 40 languages

Conclusion

Although Binance is the largest crypto exchange in the world with excellent portfolio of financial product offerings, we still find some shortcomings of the exchange after comparison, like its regulatory issues, less intuitive interface, etc.

We think BTCC may be a better choice for crypto investors with less trading experience. Besides, for traders looking for high security, BTCC is better. As a old exchange enjoy good reputation, BTCC is more reliable.

Except for the above-mentioned aspects, BTCC also stands out in other aspects, like high liquidity & volume, flexible leverage up to 500x, rich rewards, etc. We believe join BTCC would make your trading journey more delightful!
