AiDoge is the most recent blockchain initiative to take advantage of AI's meteoric rise. This new initiative has developed a decentralised meme generator that lets users quickly and easily make their own memes in response to pre-written text prompts.

Learn more about AiDoge and how to get your hands on some $AI tokens at a discount during the upcoming presale.

What is AiDoge?

AiDoge is a freshly established blockchain startup that has developed an AI-powered meme generating tool. In a word, all that's required to make a meme is to answer some basic text questions. Then, based on the instruction, the AiDoge tool will produce a high-quality meme that is completely original.

Given that millions of memes are exchanged every week, AiDoge has unquestionably identified a need in the industry. When it comes to politics, memes really shine. In the 2017 UK general election, for instance, a research indicated that just 30 memes had more than 45 million views.

AiDoge is revolutionising the meme-making process by making it fully automated. Since no two generations are alike, the problem of recycling the same internet memes is solved. Another cool thing about AiDoge is that any user-created meme may be turned into an NFT.

This allows the user to establish their identity as the meme's originator. Proving ownership in today's market is extremely challenging, if not impossible. Credits are required in order to use the AiDoge platform for meme creation. Credits will be deducted from the user's total with each meme created.

Ai, the project's native token, is required to purchase AiDoge credits. This demonstrates that there are practical applications for the AI token, both a medium of exchange and a medium of investment. This is due to the fact that 50% of the total AI token supply is being offered by AiDoge in a presale. There are 20 different phases of the presale, and the first investors always get in at a discount.

How Does AiDoge Work?

In comparison to other utility coins, AiDoge's design is intuitive. Visitors to AiDoge.com must purchase credits with $AI in order to use the meme generator. The user is then prompted to write words elaborating on the desired meme.

The topic of the prompt might be anything currently trending online, including news stories, political figures, famous faces, and athletic events. Since AiDoge's algorithm is taught using data from the entire internet, its output is virtually unlimited.

Memes are created with a picture and a caption. Users have the option of making post-creation changes to the text or image. Memes can be created as NFTs and circulated in a matter of seconds.

Two crucial methods exist for acquiring $AI credit. Credits can be purchased on a one-off basis with $AI. Alternatively, $AI tokens can be staked by AiDoge users. Daily incentives in the form of meme credit can be earned through $AI staking.

By eliminating the need for additional funds beyond the initial stake, this staking method incentivizes frequent AiDoge users to acquire and hold $AI. Naturally, the staked $AI aids in AiDoge ecosystem safety as well.

How to Buy AiDoge Token?

This AiDoge pricing forecast has shown that the project has huge potential. The AiDoge website is now the only place where early investors can buy $AI tokens, although it should be emphasised that the presale phase has not yet ended.

As such, here are the five easy actions investors must take to participate in the AiDoge presale:

Trade AiDoge Now!

1. Make a Crypto Wallet

The AiDoge presale requires participants to have a cryptocurrency wallet that is compatible with the ERC-20 token standard. This feature is standard across the industry's top crypto wallets, giving traders a wide range of options. MetaMask and Trust Wallet are two free and simple options we advocate using.

2. Buy Some Cryptocurrency

To proceed with the $AI purchase, it is necessary to acquire some cryptocurrency. All major exchanges and brokers support Ethereum (ETH), Binance Coin (BNB), and Tether (USDT) for the AiDoge presale. After making a transaction, buyers must send their cryptocurrency to the wallet they set up in Step 1.

AiDoge tokens can also be purchased with a credit or debit card, another option for investors. As a result, there is no longer any requirement to use a cryptocurrency exchange in advance.

3. Connect your wallet with the AiDoge presale dashboard

Follow this by visiting AiDoge's website and selecting "Buy Now." Investors can then select their preferred wallet service and finish the connection by following the on-screen prompts.

4. Buy $AI Tokens

A new window will open where they can select their currency of choice and enter their desired investment amount. There will be network fees involved with the purchase, so it's important to set aside some cryptocurrency in case they're needed. Once everything has been verified, the transaction can be finalised.

5.Request Tokens

A Token Generation Event (TGE) is scheduled to take place after the presale concludes. After that is complete, $AI tokens purchased by investors can be retrieved through the project website.

Conclusion

To create the next wave of Internet sensations, the AiDoge meme coin project is employing generative AI. It provides a simple interface that can entice both novice and seasoned meme creators.

Memes and artificial intelligence (AI) are both very hot areas of the cryptocurrency industry, and that's exactly where AiDoge comes in. This token's price may or may not skyrocket, although similar coins have seen increases of over 2,500% shortly after being listed on exchanges.

During the current AiDoge presale, investors can purchase $AI tokens at a discount. Get your hands on some of the new, viral meme coin by visiting the presale site right away.
