How to Buy Shiba Inu (SHIB) in Canada

Are you interested in meme coin Shiba Inu (SHIB) and want to start your crypto trading journey from buying Shiba Inu (SHIB) in Canada? However, before trading this cryptocurrency, you should have a basic knowledge about Shiba Inu (SHIB). Besides, you also must be fully aware of the risk of buying crypto in Canada.

Shiba Inu (SHIB), the second meme coin, has drawn the world's attention and gone viral since 2020. SHIB is a decentralized cryptocurrency created in August 2020 by an anonymous person or group using the pseudonym "Ryoshi". SHIB is an Ethereum-based ERC-20 token. Since launch, Shiba Inu has gained huge popularity and success.

Shiba Inu emerged as a direct challenger to Dogecoin, capturing the imagination of investors with its cute dog mascot and a massive supply. Since March, 2024, Shiba Inu price spiked, reaching a high at $0.00004289 in March 5, 2024. After the fourth Bitcoin Halving event on April 19, Shiba Inu (SHIB) witnessed a surge in its price. As of April 22, 2024, Shiba Inu traded at a price of $0.00002657.

The following sets forth the SHIB to USD Price Chart:

Looking ahead, Shiba Inu (SHIB) is expected to usher a bright future, as all cryptocurrencies usually see price rally after a period of Bitcoin Halving happened based on historical experience. There is no doubt that Shiba Inu (SHIB) is a good investment option in Canada, and even the world.

Despite the potential of huge investment return from crypto trading, Canadian investors are suggested to watch out the high risks related to cryptocurrencies. CAFC planning communications outreach officer Jeff Horncastle said that they estimated that only five to 10 per cent of victims report to the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre, and the majority of reports are related to crypto.

In terms of Shiba Inu (SHIB), this meme coin is easily be the target of scam attacks. Recently, Shibarmy Scam Alert found a series of phishing attacks targeting Shiba Inu community, causing the community being on high alert. On Friday, April 19, the Scam tracker sent a stern warning to community members against falling for these phishing emails.

Across the diverse communities within the cryptocurrency space, there has been a notable increase in scam activities, many coming in the form of phishing attacks, impersonation, fake company alerts or advertisements, giveaway scams and other deceptive tactics. At the same time, Shiba Inu's large and passionate community of investors and supporters makes it a prime target for these malicious scammers aiming to take advantage of innocent crypto investors and exploit their enthusiasm for illicit gains.
