Latest Paypal Stock News

According to the most recent PayPal news, the venture arm of the company has led a $52 million funding round for the web3 startup Magic. Other notable investors participating in the strategic funding round included Cherubic, Synchrony, KX, Northzone, and Volt Capital. Magic is a Wallet-as-a-service provider which assists businesses in their smooth transition to web3.

Paypal Stock Price Prediction Today

PayPal stock price has been rising since last week. PYPL price has rebounded from a fresh yearly low of $59. Considering the momentum behind the current bounce, the stock may retest the $68.5 resistance soon.

Paypal Stock Forecast 2023

PYPL stock price pumped more than 20% in January 2023. However, the bulls lost momentum, and the bears tanked the price really hard. Consequently, the stock plummeted to its lowest level since 2017 in May 2023. After a bounce from these lows, PayPal share price is now trading at $64.5.

Our PayPal stock price prediction will remain bearish until it reclaims the $68 level. This level was a previous support that may now act as a huge resistance.

Paypal Stock Forecast 2025

A lot can happen in the Fintech world in the next two years. Analysts expect the US economy to enter a recession later this year. If this happens and the economy shrinks, and the recession prolongs, then PayPal price may drop to $25, which is also the price target of the recent breakdown from ascending triangle pattern.

Paypal Stock Forecast 2030

Paypal stock price prediction 2030 is anybody's guess, as the world can be a totally different place in the next seven years. The ongoing advancements in the fields of web3 and artificial intelligence may change the whole tech landscape within the next decade.

While cryptocurrency may become the dominant way to transact over the internet in the coming years, I still think PayPal will survive as it is already investing in web3 businesses.

Paypal Stock Forecast: What Will Paypal Stock Be Worth in 5 Years?

Many new market players are already giving PayPal a run for their money. Furthermore, many analysts do not expect the U.S. stock market to hit new all-time highs in the next 5 years. As a result, PayPal stock price will probably stay below $100 for the next 5 years. However, much will depend on global macroeconomic conditions.

How Much Has Paypal Stock Risen This Year?

PayPal stock price showed some strength at the start of 2023 as the shares surged by more than 20%. After this, the stock started to tank very hard and has been in a downward spiral since then. This means PYPL stock is 12.5% down since the start of this year.

Why is Paypal Stock Falling?

In its Q1 2023 earnings report, PayPal Inc. beat its EPS and revenue estimates. However, NASDAQ: PYPL stock still tanked very hard due to the headline guidance on low operating margins. Many analysts think the stock has become undervalued.

Should I Buy Paypal Share?

That's a pretty subjective question, as the investment expectations of every individual may vary. First of all, you must determine the timeframe of your investment. If you are investing for the mid-term, then you need to watch for a reclaim of the $68 resistance very carefully. This can be a long signal for a major relief rally on a higher timeframe.

Where Can I Buy Paypal Stock?

There are many ways to gain exposure to the price action of PayPal share price. The best way is to buy PayPal stock on online broker sites like Robinhood, eToro, and Interactive Brokers. You must define your risk constraints before investing in any stocks.

Summing All Up

From the above, PayPal stock does not appear to be a good buy right now as it is trading at its lowest level in the last six years. If the stock regains support at $68, we expect a strong relief rally, but it's too early to speculate. A lot also depends on the U.S. Federal Reserve, which will decide on interest rates at this month's FOMC meeting.
