Terra Classic (LUNC) Price Forecast: Can the LUNC Continue to Rise?

Original:

<https://www.btcc.com/en-US/academy/research-analysis/terra-classic-lunc-price-forecast-can-the-lunc-continue-to-rise>

Abstract:

- After a recent network update, Terra Classic price forecast has been a hot topic.
- The V22 upgrade improves the crypto network by staking.
- This comes as programmers work to recover from a recent crash.

On Monday, once the Terra Classic network was upgraded, it would be wise to verify Terra Classic (LUNC-USD) price forecasts.

With that patch, Terra Classic now supports staking. The fact that just roughly 1% of LUNC has been staked so far is encouraging. After the network meltdown earlier this year, this is a huge boost for Terra.

Developers of Terra Classic have made a new attempt to bounce back from the crash with the release of the V22 network upgrade. During that crash, the blockchain-based stablecoin was unable to keep its $1 price peg. As soon as this was announced, Terra (LUNA-USD) abandoned LUNC for another network.

Some investors are eager to learn more about Terra Classic's possible future in light of the staking news. Below, you'll find our most up-to-date forecasts for the price of LUNC.

Terra Classic (LUNC) Price Forecast

- As we begin our top 10 list, DigitalCoinPrice's average 2023 price forecast of $0.000190 is the lowest.
- WalletInvestor follows with a prediction for LUNC of $0.000219 in one year.
- Lastly, we project that by 2023, the price of one Terra Classic will have dropped to $0.000228.

As of this writing, one unit of Terra Classic can be purchased for $0.000133, which provides some context on those price forecasts. In addition, as of Monday morning, LUNC has risen 6 percent over the course of the previous 24 hours, which is something that investors should take note of.

Lucky for you, we have more fresh market news for crypto investors.
